OADR Form No. 002
COMMITMENT FORM

Private ADR Provider Organization (APO) or Public APO with Public ADR Program

In view of our application for accreditation, the _____ commits to comply with the Guidelines and Standards provided in the OADR's Statement of Principles for Accredited ADR Provider Organizations ("Statement of Principles") and the OADR's Training Standards for ADR Practitioners ("Training Standards") as provided under Department of Justice (DOJ) Department Circular No. 49, s. 2012 (DC 49, s. 2012).

In accordance with Section Nos. 8 and 24 of DOJ DC 49, s. 2012, our organization agrees to and shall cooperate with the OADR Compliance and Monitoring Division as it conducts the following activities:

- a. Monitoring and verification of website content of OADR-Accredited ADR service providers;
- b. Monitoring and verification of OADR-approved ADR Training Programs;
- c. Collection and processing of periodic reports as may be requested by the OADR; and
- d. Development and implementation of an effective monitoring scheme to maintain the quality of ADR providers and practitioners in OADR's roster of accredited service providers.

Further, our organization understands and recognizes that the OADR may, upon complaint of any interested party or motu proprio, revoke the accreditation earlier conferred to our organization/ADR program upon a finding of:

- a. Material violation of any provision of the Statement of Principles and/or the Training Standards;
- b. Failure to maintain the website required under DOJ DC 49, s. 2012, or its material alteration in such a way that its contents, i.e., ethical, professional, practice, legal or administrative standards, have become significantly lower than those initially represented in the original website; or
- c. Any other violation or circumstance of similar nature and analogous to those above mentioned.
